Minutes from home, miles from ordinary.

The hub of entertainment for southeastern North Carolina, the Crown Center complex consists of five great facilities that host every type of meeting, convention, entertainment and leisure activity you can imagine.

Since opening in 1997, the 11,000-seat Crown Coliseum has hosted major concerts, family shows, WWE wrestling, motorsports, theatrical productions and major conventions and graduations. The Southern Professional Hockey League's (SPHL) Fayetteville FireAntz and the National Indoor Football League's (NIFL) Fayetteville Guard call the Crown Coliseum home.

While the primary use of the 5,000-seat Crown Arena has been concerts, the newly renovated venue has the capability to meet a wide range of activities including Professional Bull Riding, rodeo, Ringling Bros. Circus, wrestling and a variety of sporting events. One of the most notable occasions in the Arena's 40-year history was the 2006 private reception for Queen Noor of Jordan.

The 2,400-seat Crown Theatre is home to the Broadway's Best Series and Community Concerts. The Theatre hosts an array of children's and school performances and allows for a more intimate atmosphere for theatrical events, concerts, and speaking engagements. Recent renovations have included the addition of an atrium lobby and balcony overlooking the lower floor.

Connected to the Coliseum, the Crown Hospitality Area features an elegant and functional ballroom and meeting facility. The 11,250 square-foot area is easily adaptable to smaller rooms for more intimate functions. The Crown Hospitality Area is a wonderful facility for weddings, receptions, speaking presentations, proms or meetings.

The Crown Exposition Center is a 60,000 square-feet, full service exhibit and meeting facility. Since opening in 1987, this versatile space has handled commerce shows, trade shows, and large and small banquets.

The Crown Center complex is home to the Cumberland County Fair. Held for 10 days every September, the Cumberland County Fair is a traditional agricultural fair that showcases youth and 4-H livestock shows and auctions. Dozens of carnival rides line the midway while vendors offer cotton candy, snow cones, candy apples and many more specialty foods. More than 45,000 people attend the fair annually.
